The Daily Commercial

SATURDAY, JULY 4, 1868.

The Commercial is the largest daily paper in the State, and goes into the principal reading families of Pittsburgh. It is the only Pittsburgh paper that can be telegraphed to every part of the country, and is the organ of the trade.

As proof of the extensive interest in the market reports of the Commercial, we will state that they are regularly copied by the New York Herald, Shipping List, Bee, &c., and other papers of the character in that and other cities, and that leading English commercial papers and circulars regularly receive them each week. There is neither the financial news, variety, nor gross Factory, Oil Refinery, or trading peculiarity of any kind that is not a subscriber to the Commercial, promptly, because its reports are the only full and reliable ones in the Pittsburgh markets.

On the third page of this morning's issue will be found an interesting letter from the editor of the Cincinnati Commercial, on the subject of the Democratic party in Ohio.

The report that Chief Justice Chase has given in his official adhesion to the Democratic combination in advance is repudiated. Some of the dispatches say that it is doubtful if he gets a corporal's guard in the Convention. What a fall! We mention not it should that the Chief Justice intends to resign as the only thing he can do after this farce.

Cincinnati and St. Louis have had a good many hard things of Chicago, but nothing half so damaging as this confession. We are not disposed to disagree with one contemporary source, but regret a statement of the city whose reputation for fair dealing did not before stand any too high.

The bill keeping a tax per cent. tax on the interest on our national securities which the Committee, under the instruction of the House, has reported, is a hook we asked that we applauded some of the suggestions the members will keep aloof from it. The Committee have counsel it with an habit to disguise its real character, but have left it completely bare that no one will be deceived. It entirely evades the specific letter of the original agreement and the accompanying report does not hesitate to say so much. The Committee declare that the movement is "hostile to the public interest and injurious to the holders" character as we have been able to discover but three. Republican journals upheld it.

The World continues to come down on Pendleton. Confident apparently that he will be nominated, that paper has set to work to keep his doctrine out of the platform. For instance, the following:
